

Louisville Leopard Touchdown Club Scholarship Application

Dear Leopard Football Player:

The Louisville Leopard Touchdown Club is sponsoring a one time $1,000.00 Scholarship to a graduating senior Louisville football player. The scholarship may be used at any accredited college, university, or other post-secondary educational institution.

The evaluation criteria for this award are as follows:

1. Academic Achievement (cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher)
2. Extracurricular Activities
3. Community Involvement
4. Scholarship Application
5. Recommendation Letters (two teachers and one non-relative)

The application deadline is October 28th, 2011. A committee of five (5) Touchdown Club Members will select the winning candidate, to be announced at the football banquet. If you have any questions regarding this application or the selection process, contact Anthony Desiato at anthonydesiato2002@yahoo.com.

Recommendation Letters

Three (3) letters of recommendation must be submitted in support of your application for this scholarship. Two of these letters must be submitted from school personnel (non football coach) who can attest to your academic promise and personal character. The third must come from an individual (non-relative) outside the school system who can attest to the same. We are interested in specific events and unusual circumstances that will give us added insight into the strengths and weaknesses of the applicant. Please have this requirement completed on a separate sheet of paper, preferably typed.

Personal Essay

Include in your application, in your own handwriting, responses to the following:

1. What has playing football at Louisville High School meant to you, and what “life lessons” have you gained for the future from this experience?
2. What steps have you taken to insure your success in college?
3. Why should the committee consider you over the other applicants for this scholarship?
